BLANCHARD COMPANA AT PALACE SPLENDID

Regular "Big Time" Stuff is Put over Footlights by Clever Actors.

The Arlington Blanchard Musical Comedy Company is at the Palace theater this week and is pleasing large audiences there daily. This is a regular "big time" company, clever, entertaining and is pleasing three large audiences there daily. This is different from others in several particulars. All the songs are catchy of performance tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Robert Mantell will appear with Margaret Anglin in the celebration at St. Louis of the Shakespeare tercentenary. He will play the role of the melancholy Jacques in the open air performance of "As You Like It."

The feature attraction today at the Robinson Grand is a Metro wonder-play entitled "The Half Million

Two houses, both of which, however, had been condemned by the city officials, were purchased outright, soaked with oil and set fire for the filming of several of the scenes, "The Fireman" will be released by the Mutual Film Corporation June 12.

T. N. Heffron, Selig director, is a busy person these days. He is finishing "The Return," which features Kathryn Williams, and making active preparations for his forthcoming live-roel feature, "The Valley of Virginia." This feature will require a large cast and many of the sets are massive and elaborate.

and the girls are pretty. The chorus is not overlooked, but what does is well done and the costumes are neat. There is an absence of vulgarity, and there is no rough-house comedy work.

A private minstrel show on board ship is the vehicle for the introduction of a number of good specialty acts. Among the notably good specialty acts are the singing by H. O. Blanchard and chorus of "Save a Couple for Father," a clog dance by Florence Markert, Vera Arlington's singing of "Things are Getting Better Every Day," and a catchy song by Myrtle Kist.

There will be a complete change

If Too Fat Get More Fresh Air

BE MODERATE IN YOUR DIET AND DERUCE YOUR WEIGHT. TAKE OIL OF KOREIN.

Lack of fresh air it is said weakens the oxygen carrying power of the blood, the liver becomes sluggish, fat accumulates and the action of many of the vital organs are hindered thereby. The heart action becomes weak, work is an effort and the beauty of the figure is destroyed.

Fat put on by indoor life is unhealthy and if nature is not assisted in throwing it off a serious case of obesity may result.

When you feel that you are getting too stout, take the matter in hand at once. Don't wait until your figure has become a joke and your health ruined through carrying around a burden of unsightly and unhealthy fat.

Spend as much time as you possibly can in the open air; breathe deeply, and get from Bland's Drug Store, Farrell's Drug Store or any druggist a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself every few days and keep up the treatment until you are down to normal. Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, helps the digestion and even a few days treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight.—Advertisement.

Bribe," and starring Marguerite Snow and Hamilton Revelle. The story is sensational and full of romance and mystery. It was adapted for the screen from the successful novel and play, "The Red Mouse," by William Hamilton Osborne.

The added attraction today is Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in the first of the Metro-Drew comedies entitled "The Count of Ten." A Metro-Drew comedy will be one of the regular Tuesday attractions at this theater. Those who enjoy clean comedy on the screen have a treat in store for them.

A Pathe News is also on this bill, making it as pretentious as any bill that the Robinson Grand has played in some time. Tomorrow beautiful Lenore Ulrich will be the attraction in a Paramount production entitled "The Heart of Paula."

The added attraction tomorrow will be the Burton Holmes Paramount Travels.

A. H. Woods produced in Northampton, Mass., this week a farce by A. E. Thomas and Clayton Hamilton, called "Thirty Days." A member of the cast was Schott Cooper, the Baltimore favorite, and others were Inez Buck, Edwin Holt and Lucia Moore.

A very good bill of vaudeville is on at the Odeon theater for the first half of this week. The two Franks have a novelty acrobatic act that is splendid. Ernest and Frankie Van Sickle and Lew Leonader in their comedy singing, talking and dancing sketch entitled "It Happened in Shreveport," are the big hit of the show and their work is certainly clever. Their dancing is a big feature of their act.

"Cheating Cheaters," by Max Marcin, which is shortly to be produced by A. H. Woods, will have a notable company including John Mason, Cyril Keightley, Edouard Durand, Edward Mawson, Marjorie Rambeau, Kathryn Osterman and Gypsy O'Brien.

The dainty screen star, Violet Mersereau, assisted by a wonderful cast is seen in a Blue Bird play, "The Great Problem," today at the Orpheum theater.

Born in the slums, her father a criminal, her mother dead from the shock of his sentence to a long term in prison, the girl is raised a pick-pocket by one of her father's "pals." When her "protector" dies the girl continues the only "profession" she is versed in. Arrested for riding the

SAYS DRINK LEMONADE FOR RHEUMATISM

Relief from rheumatism and sciatica can be obtained by drinking lemonade and avoiding alcoholic drinks.

To get rid of this stubborn disease, however, to stop the twinges, pain and swelling, and drive the poisonous accumulations from the joints and muscles, all generally inclined druggists will tell you to take half a teaspoonful of Rheuma daily until all misery ceases.

Rheuma is a powerful remedy, because only a powerful remedy can overcome such a terrible disease; but Rheuma acts speedily—the first dose taken and you'll know that you will soon be your healthy, happy self again.

Wells-Haymaker Co. and all druggists know what Rheuma will do, for they sell a great deal of it and guarantee that two 50-cent bottles will overcome rheumatic agony or money back.—Advertisement.
